

The Richards Library Mission Statement

The Richards Library provides a wide-range of unbiased source materials and utilizes traditional and modern methods that will educate, inform, entertain and provide the basis for a life-long learning experience. We offer the community a safe space that encourages inquiries, free thought, an exchange of ideas and a forum for discussion. As we strive to expand the community's global knowledge, we also strive to expand and preserve its cultural and historical uniqueness within that global setting.