Friends,

I am writing to share a story from the Adirondack Land Trust's 2024 Annual Report about our Birding for All program.

The program, launched in 2022, aims to make birdwatching accessible to more people by providing libraries with free resources to support this activity. It is a great way for people to try out birdwatching without having to purchase their own binoculars or field guides. As funding has allowed, the program has equipped eight libraries throughout the Adirondacks with birding kits for patrons to borrow. We have received a grant to provide five more backpacks and would like to offer the chance for interested libraries to apply.

Each Birding for All kit includes a backpack with the following:

- Binoculars: Vortex Viper HD 8x42 binoculars for clear and detailed viewing.
- Field Guide: Sibley Birds East, a comprehensive guide to identifying birds in the region.
- Instructional Materials: Information on how to use and care for binoculars, ensuring a positive experience for beginners.
- Notebook: A space for users to record, sketch, and share their bird sightings and experiences.

Each kit is valued at over $725, reflecting our commitment to providing high-quality resources for Adirondack communities and ensuring that equipment costs are not a barrier to participate in birdwatching. Libraries that participate in this program say Birding for All offers patrons a unique opportunity to connect with nature, promote environmental stewardship, and encourage outdoor activities.

For more information, please visit adirondacklandtrust.org/get-involved/birding-for-all.

How Love of Nature Takes Flight

Inside the Old Forge Library, 6-year-old Ethan Honsinger raises a pair of binoculars to his eyes. "I see a moose!" he says. He's right—a stuffed toy of the largest mammal in the Adirondacks rests on a bookshelf.

Ethan, his sister 8-year-old Aislynn, and their parents Sarah and Burt are there to check out a backpack with Vortex Viper HD 8X42 binoculars and two field guides, Sibley Birds East and Adirondack Birding, along with a tip sheet and field notebook.

The backpack is part of the Adirondack Land Trust's Birding for All program launched in 2022. A Northern New York Audubon Cullman Grant provided initial funding, and the Glasser Foundation and other generous donors have enabled it to grow. Each backpack and its contents exceed $725 in value.

The program expands access to birding by removing cost barriers to participation. Eight Adirondack libraries now have Birding for All backpacks available for their patrons: the Au Sable Forks Free Library, Belden Noble Memorial Library in Essex, Lake Placid Public Library, Keene Valley Library, Old Forge, Paine Memorial Free Library in Willsboro, Saranac Lake Free Library, and Wadhams Free Library.

When the Honsingers visited Old Forge three years ago for Burt's job interview, seeing an adult loon with two chicks aboard left an impression. Burt is now a teacher and Sarah a librarian at the local school. Today, the family heads to a pond east of town. Aislynn leads the way through firs and along water's edge, looking for a bald eagle. While bird sightings elude the siblings, they flap their arms and call out "Caw! CAW!" to display their avian knowledge.

The family heads to the town waterfront, where white-tailed deer with twin spotted fawns meander nearby. Ethan and Aislynn pass the binoculars back and forth for a closer look before turning their focus to a mallard family. They aim the binoculars one last time, future conservation champions guided by nature.

Re: SED/L

Dear Shelby Burkhardt:

Thank you for requesting the comments of the Division for Historic Preservation of the Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation (OPRHP). We have reviewed the submitted materials in accordance with the New York State Historic Preservation Act of 1980 (Section 14.09 of the New York State Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation Law). These comments are those of the Division for Historic Preservation and relate only to Historic/Cultural resources. They do not include potential environmental impacts to New York State Parkland that may be involved in or near your project.

We have reviewed the project description, photographs, and project sketches submitted to our office on February 13, 2025. Please note that the project was submitted under NY State Historic Sites agency, but has been changed to SED/L. In reviewing the project, we note that all of the proposed options are acceptable but strongly encourage the proposed tanks to be buried or visually screened, and for the vents to utilize existing penetrations in the masonry wall or chimney. Based on this review, it is the opinion of OPRHP that the project will have No Adverse Impact on historic properties, with the following conditions:

1. Submit final project plans for OPRHP review and approval when available. Plans should be submitted to CRIS using this project number.
2. Where the PVC is proposed to penetrate the chimney or exterior wall the perimeter of the hole should be filled with mortar. Mortar should be compatible with historic mortar in color, texture, and strength. See NPS Preservation Brief # 2 Repointing Mortar Joints for further guidance (<https://www.nps.gov/tps/how-to-preserve/briefs/2-repoint-mortar-joints.htm>).

If you have any questions, you can call or e-mail me at the contact information below.

Sincerely,

Theresa Moriarty

THE RICHARDS LIBRARY SEED LIBRARY

A seed library is a collection of seeds meant to be lent or shared with others. Are you interested in gardening, but don't know where to start? We have partnered with Cornell Cooperative Extension Master Gardeners, Soil & Water Conservation District, and others to run free workshops that will guide a novice or experienced gardener through the growing season. A repurposed card catalogue contains the seed varieties we have this season. People may choose up to five seed varieties each month. You do not need to be a library card holder to take seeds or attend workshops.

The Richards Library brings “Messages From Survivors,” a powerful new exhibit about the Holocaust, survival and resiliency to the Jeffrey M. Levine Community Room at The Richards Library, located at 36 Elm Street, Warrensburg, NY 12885, starting April 21, 2025 for the duration of a month.

The Richards Library presents a traveling exhibit, “Messages From Survivors: One Family’s Holocaust Legacy. The exhibit is built on 40 years of filming a family of Holocaust survivors in the Bronx, Miami and a bungalow colony in the Catskills between 1962 and 2016.

In the exhibit, six short videos introduce the Holocaust through powerful personal stories of a family of Holocaust survivors. Six exhibit panels researched using the US Holocaust Memorial Museum’s resources provide historical context for the video footage. The exhibit covers the family’s experiences from 1938 through the 21st century.

A feature of the exhibit is the use of QR codes to bring the Holocaust survivors’ voices directly into people’s lives, both onsite and at home. Take-home cards keep the story alive once visitors return home. Each card contains stories of family members—some who survived and some who didn’t, along with QR code links to the videos.

"We could never believe that a thing like this could happen. But it did happen. . . . That's why it's very important to tell people and hopefully it will not repeat itself. This is my husband's dream and mine." —Anna Jacobs, Holocaust survivor

"I want people to feel as if they are personally meeting my family. My parents met at a forced labor camp. My mother's entire immediate family was murdered and my father lost most of his family. My mother said, 'No one could believe things could get so bad. But they did.' Their message to the world was, 'Don't let it happen again. No place. In no country.' We hope this exhibit will inspire every community to address even the smallest incidents of hatred, injustice and cruelty.

—Roz Jacobs, Co-Creator of Messages from Survivors

Exhibit co-creator, Laurie Weisman adds, "The Jacobs family show us that resilience and joy can co-exist with loss and pain. By sharing their stories, we share their hard-earned wisdom with the world."

Messages from Survivors is available thanks to funding from Assemblywoman Carrie Woerner and other funders of The Memory Project Productions.

"We're excited to bring this new program to our community and students because there are so few survivors around to share their experiences and these personal stories offer first-person testimony that makes it real. We hope the take-home cards will generate meaningful conversations at homes and in schools." – The Richards Library

The exhibit is available during our open hours when the Community Room is not in use for other programs. Our hours are MWF 9am to 5pm, TTH 9am to 7pm, and SA 9am to 12pm. On April 24, Holocaust Memorial Day, the exhibit will be available for viewing any time from 9am to 4pm.

###

Our Story

The Memory Project Productions grew out of the vision of painter Roz Jacobs, the daughter of two Holocaust survivors, and the experience of educator Laurie Weisman.

In the early 2000s Jacobs was toying with the idea of creating an exhibit that would provide viewers with an intimate view of a painter's experience. She tackled the project by creating multiple portraits using a photograph of her uncle Kalman as a subject. Kalman was the younger brother of Roz Jacobs' mother. Like the rest of her mother's family, Kalman had been killed during the Holocaust.

While working one day, Roz was startled by a tangible sense of this little boy standing in the photographer's studio looking up at the camera. Suddenly, a feeling of his life force replaced her haunting imaginings of how he might have died.

She spent the next decade creating The Memory Project Productions with partner Laurie Weisman in order to share this life-affirming experience of connecting with the past.

Their latest project is Messages From Survivors, a traveling exhibit based on 40 years of footage of the Jacobs family who recall their experiences, celebrate holidays and life itself with children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. They are working with partners to bring this exhibit around the United States with a focus on rural communities who may not have the opportunity to meet many Jewish people or visit Holocaust museums.

Today, the internationally-recognized Memory Project Productions brings people inside the creative process while addressing themes of loss, love and resilience.

About Us

Roz Jacobs is a New York City painter whose work is exhibited in galleries and museums around the world. Her film projects include the award-winning “Finding Kalman”. Her book, “Finding Kalman: A Boy in Six Million,” co-written with her mother Anna Jacobs, was published by Abingdon Square Publishing and released as an e-book by Pearson.

The daughter of Holocaust survivors, she conceived of The Memory Project Productions as a way to connect to the humanity and life force of family members and others murdered during the Holocaust and to share their history. “The fascists tried to destroy our identities-our humanity. Creating portraits and sharing stories of real people reclaims the lost ones and transforms their absence into presence.”

Laurie Weisman has had a 30-year career in educational publishing. She led teams that produced award-winning programs at Sesame Workshop and Scholastic and was an editorial director at Time for Kids and a producer of multimedia programs at Bank Street College of Education.

“For me, this project is a way to connect people to history and to each other’s humanity. I also want to share the strength I get from Holocaust survivors. They endured cruelty and loss that I cannot imagine and have retained their ability to love and to find joy in life.”

Upgrade Your AC Before Cost Goes Up This Summer (Prevailing Wage Added Cost $3950.00): due to the new refrigerant changeover and models having to be modified cost of air conditioning installations are going up between $2000 and $3000 at a minimum moving ahead I would advise upgrading ACs now and saving that cost down the road. RICHARDS LIBRARY

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2024

(1) Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Organization

Richards Library, located in Warren County, New York, was founded by a large individual gift. Miss Clara King Richards of Warrensburg and her sister, Mrs. Mary Richards Kellogg who resided in Elizabethtown, presented this as a free gift to the town. Richards Library was chartered in 1901. The purpose of Richards Library is to provide free loans of print and non-print materials to the public and to provide reading programs from pre-school to adult. The library is primarily supported by property taxes.

(b) Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

(c) Basis of Presentation

Financial statement presentation follows the recommendation of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) in its Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). Richards Library is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: net assets without donor restrictions, and net assets with donor restrictions (in accordance with donor-imposed restrictions on the use of net assets).

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Richards Library defines cash and cash equivalents as amounts readily convertible into cash and includes deposit accounts with banks.

(e) Income Taxes

Richards Library is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, is classified as an organization that is not a private foundation, and qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction for individual donors. Management believes there are no sources of unrelated business taxable income and no uncertain tax positions. Richards Library is required to file Federal Form 990 "Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax".

(f) Assets Whose Use is Limited - Investments

Investments consist of mutual funds which are carried at fair value. Fair value is determined based on quoted market prices. Investment gains and losses are recognized in the statement of activities.

(1) Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (cont.)

(g) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost at date of acquisition or estimated fair value at date of donation. Depreciation is computed under the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of property and equipment. Richards Library has a policy to capitalize fixed asset expenditures with a unit value greater than $1,000 and a useful life greater than one year. Expenditures for normal repairs and maintenance are charged to operations as incurred.

(h) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ.

(i) Revenue Recognition

Property Taxes

Property tax revenue is based upon an annual tax levy on properties within the Warrensburg Central School District. The Library recognizes this revenue over its calendar fiscal year. Amounts received prior to the library's fiscal year are recorded as deferred revenue on the statement of financial position.

(j) Contributions and Investment Income

Contributions and investment income are recorded as without donor restrictions or with donor restrictions depending on the existence and/or nature of donor restrictions. When a restriction expires (i.e., when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Restrictions imposed that are met in the same year they are received are included in net assets without donor restrictions. Contributions of non-cash items are recorded at fair value at the date of donation. The accompanying statement of activities includes non-cash donations of $6,401.

(k) Contributed Services

No amounts have been reflected in the financial statements for contributed services. Richards Library generally pays for services requiring specific expertise. However, many individuals volunteer their time and perform tasks that assist Richards Library with its activities.

(1) Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (cont.)

(I) Financial Assets - Liquidity and Availability

Richards Library has $407,400 of financial assets available within one year of the statement of financial position date to meet cash needs for general expenditures consisting of cash and cash equivalents of $382,400 and certificates of deposit of $25,000. None of these financial assets are subject to donor or contractual restrictions that make them unavailable for general expenditures within one year of the statement of financial position date. Richards Library also has investments of $47,155 at December 31, 2024. These investments are donor restricted. The dividend earnings are able to be utilized within one year of the statement of financial position date, but any market gains or losses are unavailable to be utilized. As part of its liquidity management, Richards Library has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as general expenditures, liabilities and other obligations become due.

(2) Investments

A summary of investments (whose use is restricted) at December 31, 2024, is as follows:

Mutual Funds	$47,155

Investment income for the year ended December 31, 2024 is recorded in the statement of activities as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions:
Interest and dividends	$118
Net assets with donor restrictions:
Gain (Loss) on investments	$1,956

(3) Functional Reporting of Expenses

Richards Library is required to present its expenses by functional classification, which shows the amount spent for program and support services. Expenses that can be specifically identified as a program or support service are charged directly to program or support services. Costs common to both functions have been allocated among the functions benefitted.

(4) Restriction on Net Assets

The restriction on net assets relates to donations received to be held for the purpose of providing income to be used for the continued operation of the library. The funds are maintained in a separate brokerage investment account. Income earned on these invested funds is utilized currently for the operation of the library. The principal amount of the donations, including any market appreciation, is recorded as net assets with donor restrictions in the statement of financial position.

(5) Fair Value Measurements

FASB "Accounting Standards Codification 820" establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements).

The asset or liabilities fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis recognized in the statement of financial position at December 31, 2024, and the level within the fair value hierarchy is as follows:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Investments - Mutual funds	$47,155	-0-	-0-

Cash and cash equivalents and current liabilities - carrying amounts reported in the statement of financial position approximate fair values because of the short maturities of those instruments.

(6) Contingent Liability

Grant Programs

Richards Library periodically receives grants. These grants are sometimes subject to financial and compliance audits by the grantors or their representatives. Accordingly, Richards Library's compliance with applicable grant and contract requirements may be established at some future date. The amount, if any, of expenditures or funding which may be disallowed by the granting agencies cannot be determined at this time although management expects such amounts, if any, to be immaterial.

(7) Lease Transactions

The Organization is subject to Accounting Standards Codification 842 (ASU 2016-02) - Accounting for Leases. Under this standard, management is required to examine any outstanding or future financial contracts, if known, to determine if they are leases, and if so, whether they qualify for accounting and disclosure. Management has reviewed its financial contracts and determined that no leases fall under, or will fall under, ASC 842 as of the report date.

(8) Coronavirus (COVID-19)

The United States recently experienced a protracted national health pandemic due to the Coronavirus ("COVID-19"). The overall consequences of COVID-19 are unknown but have the potential to result in extended economic impacts. The full impact of this event on the Organization and its future results and financial positions is not presently determinable.

RICHARDS LIBRARY

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2024

(9) Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject Richards Library to concentrations of credit risk consist of cash account balances in a financial institution which, from time to time, may exceed FDIC insured coverage limits. At year end, there were no deposits which exceeded federally insured coverage limits.

(10) Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through the report date, and determined that there have been no subsequent events that have occurred that would modify our report or require adjustments to our disclosures in the financial statements.
